Report on Healthcare Perspectives

Mary Anne Sheahan, Executive Director for Vermont Talent Pipeline Management

Mary Anne Sheahan, Executive Director for Vermont Talent Pipeline Management (VTPM), Vermont Business Roundtable, presented a report on healthcare perspectives. Vermont Talent Pipeline is an employer led model developed by the US Chamber of Commerce Foundation. It focuses efforts on the needs of employers in a collective impact model. The Vermont Business Roundtable acts as a neutral convener of industry businesses to determine the most critical jobs they need to hire, a forecast for new and replacement positions, with competency and credential requirements for each of those jobs. The VTPM conducted a survey of employer needs in Vermont relating to the healthcare workforce and presented the highest need is for registered nurses. Mary Anne discussed the ways Vermont can train and retain more nurses, including developing employer-sponsored hiring solutions and develop and improve nurse educator training.
