University of Vermont Medical Center Mid-Year Budget Adjustment

I want to encourage you to deny the mid-year budget adjustment submitted by UVMC. The reality is Vermonters cannot afford such an increase. Most of us are challenged with limited revenues, increasing costs, and need to make hard choices. For the layperson, there is nothing in their submission which identifies areas where they are reducing expenditures that will not impact patient care. Until it is clear UVMC is doing all they can, I suggest you deny the request.
